About our Speaker

Edward Hirsch a MacArthur Fellow, has published nine books of poems, including The Living Fire: New and Selected Poems (2010), which brings together thirty-five years of work. His work Gabriel: A Poem (2014), which The New Yorker calls "a masterpiece of sorrow," won the National Jewish Book Award for poetry. He has also published five books of prose, among them, How to Read a Poem and Fall in Love with Poetry (1999), a national bestseller, and A Poet's Glossary (2014). A passionate advocate for poetry, he held a 17-year career as an English professor at the University of Houston and wrote the long-running "Poet's Choice" column in the Washington Post. He was awarded a Guggenheim Fellowship in poetry in 1985. Since 2002, he has served as a trustee of the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation and in 2003 he became the fourth President. He holds seven honorary degrees.
